

HOW ELECTRONIC PAYMENTS PAY OFF FOR YOUR BUSINESS

Accepting electronic payments pumps energy and resources into your business—you have the technology to master time, money and growth. This is an introduction to the world of safe, simple and smart payment technology. For more tips and resources, visit MasterYourCardUSA.org/small-business.

YOUR PROCESSOR

A good processor does the digital legwork for you to make sure you get paid. Find the processor that fits your business—small, medium, or internet-based.

YOUR BANK

The bank says the customer is good for the payment and transfers the money to you.

ACCEPTING PAYMENT

Square, mobile, online, in-person—you can accept all kinds of payments thanks to the electronic payment network provided by companies such as MasterCard®.

YOUR MONEY—FAST, SAFE AND GUARANTEED.

When the money lands in your account, you have a digital record.
